Metropolitan Company Decides Teuton Tongue Would Offend

Will Release Singers

Ober, Kurt, Sembach, Braun and Hempel to Lose Their Contracts

the German tongue.

Among the leading singers of German opera who will be eliminated from the Metropolitan's personnel this year are Mme. Ober, Mme. Selma Kurt, Jo-hannes Sembach and Carl Braun. Mme. said to be extremely pro-Ally, although their names are German, will probably remain.

The company will be able to get rid of its German singers through a clause in their contracts which stipulates that these will not remain valid in case of any great external disturbance.

It has been suggested that German opera could be given in English this year, but this is declared to be impracticable because of the difficulty which would be experienced in training the singers in English. Frederick J. Warburton
